

EAST END REALTY OWNERS WILL SEEK INJUNCTIONS

Suits Being Prepared to Restrain the City From Collecting Pennsylvania Avenue Assessments.

A BITTER AND LONG LEGAL WAR IS PROBABLE

Three suits, asking that the city be restrained from having the special assessments for the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue placed on the tax duplicate against the property holders of the East End as a special assessment, are in course of preparation and will be filed at Lisbon within the next week or ten days.

These suits are brought at the instigation of more than 300 property owners of the East End, who are determined to spend several times the amount of the assessments rather than be taxed, as they claim, unjustly. The three suits represent three classes of property owners and are calculated to determine legally whether the improvement is to be paid for as a special or general improvement. Many illegalities are to be alleged in the three actions.

The first named class of property owners are: First, those abutting on the avenue, who are now paying a special assessment levied for the grading and straightening of the thoroughfare; second, those abutting on the avenue, who are not paying special assessments, and third, those not abutting on the avenue.

The first named class of property owners, among other objections, will allege that they are already assessed for special improvements to the limit allowed by law. The cost of grading and straightening the thoroughfare, it is claimed, was taxed against the properties and they are still making payments.

The second class of property owners will allege among other things that the assessments are not equitable, according to the benefits derived, and that there is a lack of sufficient description in the assessing ordinance providing for the payment of the improvement, and published in the local newspapers a short time ago.

It is alleged that a number of properties have been overlooked, and as they are not included in the ordinance, cannot be made to pay any part of the cost although as much benefited as the other properties. It is also alleged that assessments have been made against people who disposed of the properties sought to be reached more than two years ago.

The number of properties not assessed or wrongly assessed, it is alleged, are of sufficient number to cause a considerable discrepancy in the total amount that cannot be collected with that estimated as the grand total by the assessing board.

The points named are but a few of those to be brought to the attention of the court by the petitioners. It is to be alleged, say those interested, that the change from the original plans of the improvement, providing for a macadam road, to brick paving was not done according to law.

The property owners, numbering more than 300, who are interested in the suits have been quietly preparing for them for several months. They have entered into an agreement, it is claimed, for the purpose of united action and to procure necessary funds to pay the costs in the courts. Competent attorneys have been employed and they are now at work preparing the petitions. The three suits are to be brought in the names of three property owners, representing the three cases named. The petitions, it is stated on good authority, will be filed before the first day of the new year.

T. O. Timmons Looked Himself Out and Was in a Sorry Plight.

MISTAKEN FOR A BURGLAR

T. O. Timmons, the veteran contractor, had an experience yesterday which, though laughable, might have resulted seriously had he been less robust.

Mr. Timmons is an early riser and yesterday morning was up and about long before daylight. Along about 6 o'clock he concluded to look over the morning paper in the hope of finding a real, sure-enough news item. He repaired to the front yard arrayed only in shirt, trousers and slippers. It was bitter cold and Mr. Timmons stepped around with a good deal of energy for an old man. As he left the house he closed the door after him, forgetting that it contained a spring lock.

After securing the paper he started to re-enter the house, but was confronted by a very formidable obstacle in the shape of a heavy oak door securely locked upon the inside. Nearly frozen from exposure he had already been subjected to, he started around the house, carefully examining each window, hoping to find one which had not been fastened, where he could crawl through. While thus engaged Mr. Timmons took no pains to conceal his movements; in fact, he was getting pretty mad by that time and didn't care who knew it.

It was about this time that G. R. Pattison, residing next to the Timmons home, arose. Glancing out of the window he made a startling discovery. Stealthily pacing to and fro in his neighbor's yard was what he took to be a bold burglar. Mr. Patterson, never having been one himself, was not sure just what a burglar looked like, but he was certain this was one, so he hastened to the telephone and

RAILROAD ORDINANCE IS HELD UP

Non-Action of Council Causes More Delay in a Most Vitally Important Matter.

After consuming enough time to frame up and pass a hundred ordinances, the city council has again determined to turn down the railroad ordinance. What influence has been brought to bear on the councilmen is not known, but it is certainly strong and of a lasting nature. The ordinance was up for its second reading last evening, but one councilman said: "What is the use in being in a hurry? The railroad company has never shown any disposition to hasten on with the ordinance." To some present it could not be seen why a councilman would broach such an excuse.

If the ordinance does not give the city what it rightly deserves, it is argued that council should have been awake long ago and inserted the provisions. The business men generally have agreed that the ordinance is suitable to their interests and they won-

A FEW CHRISTMAS GIFTS

In the Shape of Appointments Likely to Be Made By the State Executive. Political and Other Notes From the Capital.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, December 23.—Gov. Nash has another fistie engagement on hand. He will instruct Attorney General Sheets to investigate the so-called boxing contests pulled off before the Sebring Athletic association last week, and if it develops they were prize fights, steps will be taken to prosecute the association, principals and spectators. The governor is riled over the attempts of sporting clubs to disregard his anti-prize fight policy, and is determined to punish all who violate the law in any way. Assistant Attorney General Jones is at Akron now investigating glove contests held there last Thursday night, and upon his return the Sebring affair will be taken up in earnest. There were five bouts at the latter place, and the governor thinks they savored strongly of prize fights. The principal one was between Billy Watt, of Akron, and Meitrich, of Barborton, the former winning in the fourth round. A crowd from Salem was present at the affair, and of course are just as amenable to the law as the principals, promoters and all other spectators.

It is expected that Gov. Herrick will announce a number of appointments this side of Christmas—probably on Thursday, so that they will come in the nature of Christmas gifts. The appointments expected this week are adjutant general, two oil inspectors and the governor's office force, and possibly his military staff. Judge Galloway, secretary to the new governor, goes to Cleveland tonight to confer regarding appointments. He will bear with him a huge pile of endorsements filed with him by numerous candidates for places. Senator Hanna, Governor-elect Herrick and Gen. Dick will confer at Cleveland this week with each other and with Judge Thomas, speaker of the house, and Senators Harris and Chamberlin as to the make-up of the committees of the two houses. The leaders desire the most substantial men on the really important committees.

Retiring Representative Ralph Cole, of Hancock, the author of the Cole tax law, largely because of his friendship for Senator B. F. Wirt, of Youngstown, whose name has been prominently used relative to the nomination for secretary of state, will not be a candidate for that honor, but instead will stand for the congressional nomination in his district, which will have several candidates for the prize. Cole is a bright young man and was the orator of the last house. He placed Hon. W. S. McKinnon in nomination for speaker. Senator Wirt spent several days in the city last week, but is saying nothing about the nomination for secretary of state. He has a host of friends throughout the state who believe his nomination for this place would be best for the interests of the party and they hope to see him so recognized.

Two youthful desperadoes, whose minds had doubtless been turned by reading wild west stories, held up another lad in the dome of the state house Monday afternoon. The armament of the pair consisted of a small pearl handled revolver of 22 calibre, and this one of them pointed at the head of their victim. He fled precipitately and shrieked for help when he reached the ground floor. The entire capital police force turned out and made a rush for the dome, capturing the desperadoes without a struggle. They were sent to the police station, where they said they were only in fun.

QUESTION IS LEFT WITHOUT DECISION

Sinking Fund President and City Treasurer Argue Interest Question.

THE PRINCIPLE INVOLVED

President John J. Purinton, of the sinking fund commission, and Treasurer Horton appeared before council last evening for the purpose of settling the question as to whether or not the former had the legal right to withhold interest that was due the commission when it was not provided for by appropriation. The subject was discussed pro and con for an hour, the solicitor and members of council taking a part in the debate, but all without disposing of the question. Mr. Purinton and Mr. Horton still being at loggerheads on several features of the subject.

Treasurer Horton presented his views, stating that he as treasurer of the city is responsible for all the money checked by the auditor and that as the auditor has a check on him for the $845, the amount in dispute, he cannot pay it out to any person or body without an appropriation by council. The stand was taken by the treasurer that the money appropriated by council should be paid out exactly as it had been designated in the appropriation.

Mr. Purinton said that the sinking fund commission is a separate and distinct body of the city and that it is the motto of the commission to take care of its interests, which will be of course taking care of the city's interests, and that it will do so regardless of any other fund or department of the city. When the commission was inaugurated the treasurer owed the commission something like $50,000. The commission could at that time have compelled the treasurer to pay it, but did not do so, knowing that the city would have to borrow the money at the rate of 7 per cent interest. It was in the power of the commission to charge the city 6 per cent for the money which it should have paid and did not pay for six months. The commission only charged 4 per cent. Mr. Purinton acknowledged that it would be necessary for council to make an appropriation to help the treasurer, but he said the commission is not dealing with council; that it is looking only to the treasurer, and as a result it is up to the treasurer to call upon council for aid.

The solicitor was asked for his opinion and he agreed with both Mr. Horton and Mr. Purinton on many of their points, but said that the commission could not legally hold back the interest when it had not been appropriated. This Mr. Purinton took exceptions on the grounds that in so much as the treasurer had the amount of money in his hands and owed it to the commission it was the first duty of the commission to take it. Further discussion called for an oratorical feat by Mr. Purinton, who explained the situation of the commission in a manner that left no doubt in the minds of his hearers as to the sincerity of that body. He informed the councilmen that the city is getting more money at the present time through the sinking fund than it ever did before from any principal invested and that the commission will fight for its rights at all times. He explained that council is now in a predicament which will necessitate careful financiering to cope with it successfully. As a matter of

PLEASANT HEIGHTS CARS ARE RUNNING ONCE MORE

Vigorous Action By Council Caused the Company to Operate the Road Again.

THE CITIZENS' PROTESTS ARE EFFECTUAL

Determined action was taken by the city council last evening for the purpose of compelling the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street Railway company to comply with every provision of its franchise. The action was taken after a delegation of the representative citizens of Pleasant Heights made plain their treatment at the hands of the company.

As a result Pleasant Heights cars are running today.

Among those of the Pleasant Heights residents present were George Ashbaugh and Criss McConnell. These two gentlemen were chosen as spokesmen for the delegation and their words were very expressive. Mr. Ashbaugh stated that inasmuch as the residents of Pleasant Heights were a part of the city, paying taxes and having to stand for the responsibility of the municipality just as much as the residents in the central portion of the city, they should be given some consideration. He said that the people on the hill and all along the line felt that council should assist them in compelling the operation of the Pleasant Heights line.

Mr. McConnell had consumed considerable time in learning the true situation and he asked that council take immediate action. He said that he had asked Manager Healy why he had stopped the car on the line and his reply was that the rails on Pleasant Heights are more susceptible to frost than in any other locality and that the company would not replace the car fact the city has $30,000 worth of assessments against property holders which it will never get and consequently will be compelled to pay it. This he said did not include the $30,000 which will fall onto the city as a result of the Pennsylvania avenue improvement.

The questions still being unsettled it was agreed that council, the commission, treasurer, solicitor and mayor hold a meeting as soon as possible and if possible come to a mutual agreement.

Struck a Big Gas Well.

Lisbon, December 23.—(Special.)—A Pittsburg company, which has been prospecting for oil and gas near Leontonia, struck a strong pressure of gas yesterday in a depth of 700 feet. When the sand was encountered the drill was stopped by the operators to await instructions from Pittsburg. When the tools were withdrawn a pressure of gas equaling 200 pounds was struck.

Contracts for County Bridges.

Lisbon, December 23.—(Special.)—Two more bridge contracts were let by the county commissioners today, one bridge to be built in Knox township, near North Georgetown, at a cost of $1,135, and the other in Middleton township, near Negley, at a cost of $1,445. The Ohio Steel Erecting company of Steubenville got both contracts.

until the elements change. Mr. McConnell stated that he had asked Mr. Healy if the geographical conditions were different on Pleasant Heights from those on the Calcutta line and that Mr. Healy would not reply.

Mr. Healy informed Mr. McConnell that the residents of Pleasant Heights could "fire away" when told that they intended to make him operate the line, and in consideration of the stand taken by Mr. Healy council was asked to not only compel him to live up to his franchise relative to Pleasant Heights, but over the city in general. Mr. McConnell further stated that the only reason Mr. Healy could have for not wishing to operate the line is because it does not pay as much as it might. He drew the conclusion that as the company had agreed to run a car up the hill without first being solicited to do so, it ought to be made to carry out the agreement.

The council talked freely on the subject and several members were highly indignant over the attitude of Mr. Healy. Mr. Croxall said the company should be made to comply with every provision of the franchise or it should be revoked. Solicitor Davidson informed the members that the board of public service would be compelled to carry out an order of council and a motion was passed demanding that the board give the company notice today to start the Pleasant Heights line and stand by the franchise in every particular.

THE SERVICE BOARD EXECUTES ORDERS

INFORMS MR. HEALY FRANCHISE MUST BE LIVED UP TO.

The Manager Says the Company Positively Will Not Operate the Road When Dangerous.

At a meeting held this afternoon, the board of public service passed a motion authorizing Solicitor Davidson to compel Manager Healy to comply with the requirements of the franchise. Mr. Healy was present at the meeting. He said that the company would positively not operate Pleasant Heights cars when conditions make it dangerous. He said the same conditions would be enforced on the Calcutta line. The board informed him that it was doing only as council ordered and that he would have to live up to the franchise.

President Taylor also told Mr. Hly that he must keep his tracks in better condition or steps would be taken by council to relieve him of his franchise.

Solicitor Davidson will first get the approval of council and will then see that Mr. Healy lives up to the franchise.

Interesting Trial Promised.

At the meeting of Gen. Garfield camp No. 3, Sons of Veterans, held last night, charges were filed against S. J. Witherow, who has been acting in the capacity of principal musician of the camp. Mr. Witherow is accused of neglect of duty, and a court martial will be assembled next Tuesday evening. Captain H. R. Thompson will act as judge advocate, and the trial will be most interesting.

Barbers Elect Officers.

The local union of barbers, No. 343, had a meeting last evening and elected the following officers: N. H. McIlvaine, president; Clarence Douglass, vice president; A. C. EAST END REALTY OWNERS WILL SEEK INJUNCTIONS

Suits Being Prepared to Restrain the City From Collecting Pennsylvania Avenue Assessments.

A BITTER AND LONG LEGAL WAR IS PROBABLE

Three suits, asking that the city be restrained from having the special assessments for the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue placed on the tax duplicate against the property holders of the East End as a special assessment, are in course of preparation and will be filed at Lisbon within the next week or ten days.

These suits are brought at the instigation of more than 300 property owners of the East End, who are determined to spend several times the amount of the assessments rather than be taxed, as they claim, unjustly. The three suits represent three classes of property owners and are calculated to determine legally whether the improvement is to be paid for as a special or general improvement. Many illegalities are alleged in the three actions.

The three classes of property owners are: First, those abutting on the avenue, who are now paying a special assessment levied for the grading and straightening of the thoroughfare; second, those abutting on the avenue, who are not paying special assessments, and third, those not abutting on the avenue.

The first named class of property owners, among other objections, will allege that they are already assessed for special improvements to the limit allowed by law. The cost of grading and straightening of the thoroughfare, it is claimed, was taxed against the properties and they are still making payments.

Mr. Purinton and Mr. Horton still being at loggerheads on several features of the subject.

Treasurer Horton presented his views, stating that he as treasurer of the city is responsible for all the money checked by the auditor and that as the auditor has a check on him for the $845, the amount in dispute, he cannot pay it out to any person or body without an appropriation by council. The stand was taken by the treasurer that the money appropriated by council should be paid out exactly as it had been designated in the appropriation.

Mr. Purinton said that the sinking fund commission is a separate and distinct body of the city and that it is the motto of the commission to take care of its interests, which will be of course taking care of the city's interests, and that it will do so regardless of any other fund or department of the city. When the commission was inaugurated the treasurer owed the commission something like $50,000. The commission could at that time have compelled the treasurer to pay it, but did not do so, knowing that the city would have to borrow the money at the rate of 7 per cent interest. It was in the power of the commission to charge the city 6 per cent for the money which it should have paid and did not pay for six months. The commission only charged 4 per cent. Mr. Purinton acknowledged that it would be necessary for council to make an appropriation to help the treasurer, but he said the commission is not dealing with council; that it is looking only to the treasurer, and as a result it is up to the treasurer to call upon council for aid.

The solicitor was asked for his opinion and he agreed with both Mr. Horton and Mr. Purinton on many of their points, but said that the commission could not legally hold back the interest when it had not been appropriated. This Mr. Purinton took exceptions on the grounds that in so much as the treasurer had the amount of money in his hands and owed it to the commission it was the first duty of the commission to take it. Further discussion called for an oratorical feat by Mr. Purinton, who explained the situation of the commission in a manner that left no doubt in the minds of his hearers as to the sincerity of that body. He informed the councilmen that the city is getting more money at the present time through the sinking fund than it ever did before from any principal invested and that the commission will fight for its rights at all times. He explained that council is now in a predicament which will necessitate careful financiering to cope with it successfully. As a matter of

Vigorous Action By Council Caused the Company to Operate the Road Again.

THE CITIZENS' PROTESTS ARE EFFECTUAL

Determined action was taken by the city council last evening for the purpose of compelling the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street Railway company to comply with every provision of its franchise. The action was taken after a delegation of the representative citizens of Pleasant Heights made plain their treatment at the hands of the company.

As a result Pleasant Heights cars are running today.

Among those of the Pleasant Heights residents present were George Ashbaugh and Criss McConnell. These two gentlemen were chosen as spokesmen for the delegation and their words were very expressive. Mr. Ashbaugh stated that inasmuch as the residents of Pleasant Heights were a part of the city, paying taxes and having to stand for the responsibility of the municipality just as much as the residents in the central portion of the city, they should be given some consideration. He said that the people on the hill and all along the line felt that council should assist them in compelling the operation of the Pleasant Heights line.

Mr. McConnell had consumed considerable time in learning the true situation and he asked that council take immediate action. He said that he had asked Manager Healy why he had stopped the car on the line and his reply was that the rails on Pleasant Heights are more susceptible to frost than in any other locality and that the company would not replace the car fact the city has $30,000 worth of assessments against property holders which it will never get and consequently will be compelled to pay it. This he said did not include the $30,000 which will fall onto the city as a result of the Pennsylvania avenue improvement.

The questions still being unsettled it was agreed that council, the commission, treasurer, solicitor and mayor hold a meeting as soon as possible and if possible come to a mutual agreement.

Struck a Big Gas Well.

Lisbon, December 23.—(Special).—A Pittsburg company, which has been prospecting for oil and gas near Leontonia, struck a strong pressure of gas yesterday in a depth of 700 feet. When the sand was encountered the drill was stopped by the operators to await instructions from Pittsburg. When the tools were withdrawn a pressure of gas equaling 200 pounds was struck.

Contracts for County Bridges.

Lisbon, December 23.—(Special).—Two more bridge contracts were let by the county commissioners today, one bridge to be built in Knox township, near North Georgetown, at a cost of $1,135, and the other in Middleton township, near Negley, at a cost of $1,445. The Ohio Steel Erecting company of Steubenville got both contracts.

Warrant For His Arrest

Lisbon, December 23.—(Special).—John Gamble, of West Point, is under bond to answer at the next term of court. He was subpoenaed in the George Hammond vs. Sarah Nagus case, heard during the September term, and refusing to appear, a warrant was issued for his arrest and given to Sheriff Leonard.

until the elements change. Mr. McConnell stated that he had asked Mr. Healy if the geographical conditions were different on Pleasant Heights from those on the Calcutta line and that Mr. Healy would not reply.

Mr. Healy informed Mr. McConnell that the residents of Pleasant Heights could "fire away" when told that they intended to make him operate the line, and in consideration of the stand taken by Mr. Healy council was asked to not only compel him to live up to his franchise relative to Pleasant Heights, but over the city in general. Mr. McConnell further stated that the only reason Mr. Healy could have for not wishing to operate the line is because it does not pay as much as it might. He drew the conclusion that as the company had agreed to run a car up the hill without first being solicited to do so, it ought to be made to carry out the agreement.

The council talked freely on the subject and several members were highly indignant over the attitude of Mr. Healy. Mr. Croxall said the company should be made to comply with every provision of the franchise or it should be revoked. Solicitor Davidson informed the members that the board of public service would be compelled to carry out an order of council and a motion was passed demanding that the board give the company notice today to start the Pleasant Heights line and stand by the franchise in every particular.

THE SERVICE BOARD EXECUTES ORDERS

INFORMS MR. HEALY FRANCHISE MUST BE LIVED UP TO.

The Manager Says the Company Positively Will Not Operate the Road When Dangerous.

At a meeting held this afternoon, the board of public service passed a motion authorizing Solicitor Davidson to compel Manager Healy to comply with the requirements of the franchise. Mr. Healy was present at the meeting. He said that the company would positively not operate Pleasant Heights cars when conditions make it dangerous. He said the same conditions would be enforced on the Calcutta line. The board informed him that it was doing only as council ordered and that he would have to live up to the franchise.

President Taylor also told Mr. Hly that he must keep his tracks in better condition or steps would be taken by council to relieve him of his franchise.

Solicitor Davidson will first get the approval of council and will then see that Mr. Healy lives up to the franchise.

Mr. Witherow is accused of neglect of duty, and a court martial will be assembled next Tuesday evening. Captain H. R. Thompson will act as judge advocate, and the trial will be most interesting.

ENGLISH POTTERS ORGANIZING.

A rousing mass meeting was held in Staffordshire, England, recently, for the purpose of increasing the membership of the trade organizations at the potteries. They met at the Burslem town hall, says an English newspaper. Alderman Thomas Edwards offered the following resolution, which brought the subject before the meeting:

"Resolved, That this meeting of all classes of workers in the potting trade determines to endeavor, by all fair and legitimate means, to induce their fellow workers, and especially female, to become members of their trade organization."

He said that the female workers had not the same advantages and privileges as the male workers, in the way of obtaining redress for wrongs which might occur. He claimed that trade unionism had done an extraordinary amount of good, and its record was such as should induce every worker to become closely associated with it.

Mr. Parkes seconded the resolution. He contended that that district was the one district that practically fixed the wages of workers the world over. That might seem to be a big claim, but he could say that after the last strike was over, the rate of 5 per cent which had been gained, was the means of raising the condition of the workers in Germany, America and France, and at home in Glasgow and Yorkshire.

The honest employer was hand in glove with the trade unionists, but many of those good employers had been beaten down by those who refused to pay the proper rate of wages, unless they were compelled. He agreed that strikes were not so good for the trade, but to be well prepared for war was the best guarantee of peace.

JAMES HAYS NOT

A DRINKING MAN

Story in a Morning Paper That He Was Drunk When Hurt Is Vigorously Denied.

The many friends of James Hays, who was so terribly injured by being struck by a train at Beaver Falls a few nights ago, resent the imputation that the accident came about through his being intoxicated. They also resent the publication of the article to this effect, in the Tribune this morning, printed from the Beaver Falls Daily Tribune. They say no effort was made to learn the facts in the case from the man's habits by even inquiring as to his habits during his several years of residence in the East End. Those who know Mr. Hays intimately state that he was not under the influence when struck down by the engine.

It is asserted by friends of the injured man that if he was found in a condition resembling intoxication it had been produced by drugs and they are beginning to believe that he was the victim of foul play. Mr. Hays usually had a goodly sum of money.

The injured man is still suffering from his injuries at the West Penn hospital.

FINE PROGRAM

Entertainment at Second United Presbyterian Church Will Be Most Entertaining.

Those who are to take part in the Christmas entertainment to be given Friday night at the Second United Presbyterian church met at the church last night for rehearsal. Distribution of presents by Santa Claus.

BEN HUR OFFICERS

Names of Those Elected For Ensuing Year at the Regular Meeting Monday Night.

Pan American Court, Tribe of Ben Hur, at the regular meeting held last Monday night, elected the following officers for the ensuing year. They will be installed at the first meeting in January:

Ira Chamberlain, past chief; Will McVey, chief; Claud Morrow, judge; Miss Maud Elliott, teacher; Nat McKinnon, scribe; Ed. Sprague, keeper of tribute; Thomas Greer, captain; Frank McGee, guide.

Cables in Danger.

The cables of the Columbiana county telephone company between the city proper and the East End have been in danger for the past two or three days from a tree that threatens to fall across them. The tree has almost been uprooted through excavations made around it by men digging clay for the East Liverpool Brick company. Captain Terrence has notified the telephone company and the danger will be removed.

A Big Family Dinner.

Dr. W. E. Mowen and wife, of Pennsylvania avenue, will entertain a number of near relatives on Christmas day with a big family dinner. Among the expected guests are Mrs. Mowen's mother, Mrs. Myra Bower; her sisters, Mrs. Daniel Kenney and Misses Anna and Lottie Bower, all of Steubenville, and her brothers, George Bowers, of that city, and J. O. Bowers and wife, of Allegheny.

AT THE THEATRE

The Aubrey Stock company played "Devil's Island" at the Grand opera house last evening. The play is a portrayal of the famous Dreyfus case, and gave the company an excellent opportunity for mechanical effects, costumes and scenery. The leading role, that of Maurice De Le Toure, captain of the French army, was well taken by Albert Hall, the leading man, who, throughout the play won applause for the excellence of his work. Miss Beatrice Robinson took the part of Countess Mina Pelovsky in an admirable manner. In Elizabeth Altherton Randolph, Miss Una Clayton has a role that suits her perfectly. Miss Ollie Halford had an excellent role, which she filled satisfactorily. Mr. Francis Morey is good. The comedy is well cared for by Frank I. Frayne. The rest of the company is also of a high standard. Excellent specialties were given between the acts. This evening, the

The railroad ordinance is again held up in council, with the prospect of an other indefinite delay. Every citizen is desirous of seeing the city make the best possible bargain with the railroad company, but the delays in effecting an agreement are vexatious. The double track railroad through the city is sadly needed, and until it is completed and in operation business must inevitably be seriously hampered. The city has grown beyond the conditions that a single-track railroad can meet, as all the manufacturing interests will concede. Therefore, to stand in the way of having the improvement completed at the earliest practical moment, is to stand in the way of increased progress and prosperity. The News

Review has made it plain in the past that it is no apologist for the railroad company. But the railroad company is bound to put through its improvements sooner or later, and we are desirous of seeing the work completed as early as possible. Council and the Pennsylvania officials should get together on a business basis and do business. The delays are expensive, and the points at issue having been thoroughly canvassed, there is no necessity that they should be prolonged.

There is a lesson in the egg famine.

Eggs are reported to have sold in this city this week at 45 cents per dozen.

There is profit in them when they sell at half the money. The egg and poultry business is not difficult to learn or hard to conduct. Still more important, it does not require a vast capital to engage in it. Farmers and others who find their present line of effort unsatisfactory as regards pecuniary results ought to require no persuasion to convince them that an opportunity is open for large returns from small investments if they will invest in hens and look after them properly.

The newspaper that is printed in a city of 22,000 people and persistently refers to it as "this place" is doing its level best, though perhaps unwitting-

THE FANATIC MOROS

SAVAGE PEOPLE WHO INHABIT THE SULU ARCHIPELAGO.

Mohammedan Subjects of Uncle Sam Always Ready For a Fight—Slavery in the Islands—Ferocity of the Juramentados.

Strangest of all the subjects of Uncle Sam are the Mohammedan Moros who inhabit the Sulu archipelago in the lower part of the Philippine group. These are the people whom General Leonard Wood has been fighting on the island of Jolo, where several thousand warriors under the leadership of Panglima Hassan have been in armed rebellion. It is said that this action on the part of Panglima Hassan may have the effect of abrogating the so called Bates treaty.

By this treaty, which was arranged by General John C. Bates, U. S. A., in 1900, the sultan became a citizen of the United States and was placed on a pension of about $3,000 a year. It also provided that the sovereignty of the United States over the archipelago be acknowledged, that the rights of the sultan be respected and that the Moros should not be interfered with on account of their religion. Further, the treaty prohibited the introduction of arms and munitions of war into the islands and guaranteed that the United States would give full protection to the sultan against foreign interference.

The sultan of the Sulu archipelago claims jurisdiction not only over that group, but also over northern Borneo. His religious control as representative of the prophet is, however, more widely recognized than his political and military sway. He has in the Sulu group about 120,000 subjects and 20,000 fighting men. These have the Mohammedan contempt for death and are of piratical and bloodthirsty tendency and inclination.

The largest island in the Sulu group, which numbers about 140, is Mindanao.

but the potentate who rules over them under the suzerainty of the United States lives at Maybun, the capital, which is on the island of Sulu, or Jolo, as it is more often called.

The Moros are accustomed to suffer all the caprices of their despotic authority. By the laws of Sulu the bankrupt debtor is the slave of his creditor. The debtor thus loses all his rights, and his children can be sold through out the archipelago. He can, however, buy the liberty of his family at the price of his own life—that is, by slaying Christians until he is himself slain. If the debtor is willing to pay the debt with his life he from that moment becomes a juramentado. The priests encourage him until he is in a very frenzy of enthusiasm.

Thus lashed into religious madness the juramentado becomes more beast than human and lusts for murder. He oils his limbs and rushes ferociously upon the hated Christians. Nothing but death can stay him. He knows that he is going to certain destruction, but believes that death is the door of paradise. Hence he cares not how many oppose him. The more the better, for he will probably succeed in doing great execution. With one sweep of his creese he will sever an arm or even the head of his victim. Like a mad dog, he fights until he is killed.

The Moro is of rather diminutive size, a sinewy, lithe fellow, with broad shoulders, thin legs and with boldness, defiance and haughtiness in every movement of his catlike tread. His dress is unique and has something of the Arab's costume about it. With skin tight trousers buttoned from knee to ankle, short blouse cut off at the waist, bare chest, gaudy sash in which his murderous barong, or creese, is carried and gayly colored turban, he is a most curious and picturesque personage, a fighting man, head hunter and formidable enemy.

The Moro detests work and subsists on fruit, fish and cattle. He fights and hunts constantly, compelling captives of other tribes to do all the menial labor. Slavery exists among the Moros, each tribe waging war with its neighbor and the stronger holding in abject slavery the vanquished. The Moro's religion permits him four wives, who never live with him, but in neighboring huts. A tidewater people, whole communities live together in huge nipa huts built far out from shore above the sea and connected with the land by rickety, insecure bridges of bamboo.

BENDHEIM'S DIAMOND.

The Moros are under the immediate rule of the dattos, petty chiefs, who in turn are subject to the sultan, the latter being the overlord and claiming allegiance from the dattos. The system is similar to the feudal system which prevailed in Europe in the middle ages.

An Idle Rumor.

All kinds of reports are going the rounds here in regard to the railroad. Following the recent changes among the officials came the story that many of the clerks and minor officials would lose their jobs altogether, in order to cut down expenses. Now comes the report that all the offices in this city are to be moved to Cleveland. The rumor has gone the rounds before and is little credited.

TAKEN TO LISBON TO BE SENTENCED

Mrs. Joseph Winn and Benjamin Scott Will Be Dealt With By Court.

Mrs. Joseph Winn and Benjamin D. Scott, arrested Monday night on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, were taken to Lisbon today by Sheriff Leonard and will receive sentence from the higher tribunal. The mayor was puzzled for some time as to what course he might pursue in the matter and what section of the statutes he could prosecute under.

Both parties pleaded guilty yesterday and this action on their part practically took the matter of sentence out of his hands. After consulting with Solicitor Davidson, Mayor Weaver summoned Sheriff Leonard, who arrived in the city this morning.

The case has attracted considerable attention for the reason that all of the parties concerned are well known in the city. Mr. Winn called at the city hall yesterday afternoon with his little two-year-old daughter, and the scene that followed was pathetic in the extreme. Up to that time Mrs. Winn had maintained a bold front, and seemed indifferent to her position or the probable outcome of the case. When the child was brought into the cell she broke down completely, and wept bitterly. She says she had sufficient cause for refusing to live with her husband, and will never have anything to do with him again. She loves her baby dearly, and says she will take steps to get possession of it as soon as she gets out of her present difficulty.

She told a News Review reporter this morning that she would never return to East Liverpool. She feels her disgrace keenly, and says she means to profit by the experience and be a better woman in the future.

FELL 50 FEET FROM A TREE

Narrow Escape of a Boy Who Was Gathering Christmas Greenery.

Ed Green, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Green, of Ninth street, had a terrible fall and a miraculous escape from death Monday afternoon. He fell a distance of over 50 feet from the top of a tree and received a broken hip and internal injuries.

With two other boys he was near Hibbet's Mills cutting Christmas green. He climbed to the top of a tall evergreen tree to cut out a choice bough and in some way lost his balance and fell to the hard ground below. The thick branches broke his fall, but his companions picked him up for dead. He soon revived and was taken home in a passing wagon. He is now on the way to recovery.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Fiftieth Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Jenkins.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Jenkins took place yesterday at their home on Main street. They were married in this city December 22, 1853, by Rev. Mr. McLeary. Mr. Jenkins is now 76 years old and Mrs. Jenkins 69. Mrs. Jenkins' maiden name was Letitia Hammond and she was born at Rochester, Pa.

Mr. Jenkins was engaged in the river business for many years and later became a railroad man. After retiring from railroad life he conducted a grist mill in this city. The couple had four children, of which three are now living. With the exception of a few years, which they spent in Cleveland, they have lived in Wellsville since their marriage.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES

Preparations Nearly Completed for the Celebration at the M. E. Church.

The Christmas treat and entertainment to be given by the M. E. Sunday school of Chester Christmas eve, will contain many enjoyable and entertaining features. An elaborate program is being arranged which is calculated to please both young and old, while everything possible is being done to make the occasion memorable as a fitting celebration of the birth of Christ.

The song service will be begun by the children, who will sing "Memories of Bethlehem." There will be recitations and other musical numbers. The church will be tastefully decorated, a committee selected for that purpose having already begun the work. Mrs. John Gardner and Mrs. Garrett Mercer were appointed to provide the treat which will be a good one, the children may rest assured.

There is a most promising outlook for the work in this church during the coming year. Under the pastorate of Rev. Blackmore the church's interests have been carefully guarded and continually advanced.

The Holiday Vacation.

The Chester schools will close for the holiday vacation tomorrow afternoon and will not convene again until January 4. The term has been one of the most successful in the history of the town, there being more pupils enrolled than ever before. The progress made has been remarkable, while the increased facilities have enabled teachers and pupils to work without the usual annoyances attending a cramped condition. Prof. James Miller has demonstrated his ability as a leader beyond the shadow of a doubt, and his work in behalf of the Chester youth is appreciated by all.

A Chicken Dinner.

Arrangements have been made with the owner for the use of the new McCutcheon block at Second and Virginia avenue on New Year's night. The ladies of the Chester U. P. church will serve a chicken dinner on that evening, and from present indications the affair will be well patronized. Members of all denominations will be welcome, and it is likely the Methodists will be well represented, since their love for chicken is known all over the world.

Successful Revival Work.

Rev. G. M. Gillilan, pastor of the Free Methodist church at Ohlerville, Pa., who has been assisting Rev. E. L. Garrow in the successful revival services in Chester for two weeks, will return tomorrow to his pastorate. Rev. Mr. Gillilan is a young minister who has attained much success, though his life has been filled with adversity.

An Idle Rumor.

All kinds of reports are going the rounds here in regard to the railroad. Following the recent changes among the officials came the story that many of the clerks and minor officials would lose their jobs altogether, in order to cut down expenses. Now comes the report that all the offices in this city are to be moved to Cleveland. The rumor has gone the rounds before and is little credited.

TAKEN TO LISBON TO BE SENTENCED

Mrs. Joseph Winn and Benjamin Scott Will Be Dealt With By Court.

Mrs. Joseph Winn and Benjamin D. Scott, arrested Monday night on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, were taken to Lisbon today by Sheriff Leonard and will receive sentence from the higher tribunal. The mayor was puzzled for some time as to what course he might pursue in the matter and what section of the statutes he could prosecute under.

Both parties pleaded guilty yesterday and this action on their part practically took the matter of sentence out of his hands. After consulting with Solicitor Davidson, Mayor Weaver summoned Sheriff Leonard, who arrived in the city this morning.

The case has attracted considerable attention for the reason that all of the parties concerned are well known in the city. Mr. Winn called at the city hall yesterday afternoon with his little two-year-old daughter, and the scene that followed was pathetic in the extreme. Up to that time Mrs. Winn had maintained a bold front, and seemed indifferent to her position or the probable outcome of the case. When the child was brought into the cell she broke down completely, and wept bitterly. She says she had sufficient cause for refusing to live with her husband, and will never have anything to do with him again. She loves her baby dearly, and says she will take steps to get possession of it as soon as she gets out of her present difficulty.

She told a News Review reporter this morning that she would never return to East Liverpool. She feels her disgrace keenly, and says she means to profit by the experience and be a better woman in the future.

RHEUMATISM

NOT A SKIN DISEASE.

It is natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when rheumatic pains are shooting through the joints and muscles and they are inflamed and sore, the sufferer is apt to turn to liniments and plasters for relief; and while such treatment may quiet the pain temporarily, no amount of rubbing or blistering can cure Rheumatism, because it is not a skin disease, but is in the blood and all through the system, and every time you are exposed to the same conditions that caused the first attack, you are going to have another, and Rheumatism will last just as long as the poison is in the blood, no matter what you apply externally. Too much acid in the blood is one cause of Rheumatism; stomach troubles, bad digestion, weak kidneys and torpid liver are other causes which bring on this painful disease, because the blood becomes tainted with the poisonous matter which these organs fail to carry out of the system. Certain secret diseases will produce Rheumatism, and of all forms this is the most stubborn and severe, for it seems to affect every bone and muscle in the body. The blood is the medium by which the poisons and acids are carried through the system, and it doesn't matter what kind of Rheumatism you have, it must be treated through the blood, or you can never get permanently rid of it. As a cure for rheumatic troubles S. S. S. has never been equalled. It doesn't inflame the stomach and ruin the digestion like Potash, Alkalies and other strong drugs, but tones up the general health, gently stimulates the sluggish organs, and at the same time antitoxins and filters out of the blood all poisonous acids and effete matter of every kind; and when S. S. S. has restored the blood to its natural condition, the painful, feverish joints and the sore and tender muscles are immediately relieved.

Our special book on Rheumatism will be mailed free to those desiring it. Our physicians will cheerfully answer all letters asking for special information or advice, for which no charge is made.

MISS MAY MARKELL,

A Society Belle of London, Canada.

MISS MAY MARKELL of London, Ontario, Canada, is a beautiful girl who knows what suffering is and Wine of Cardui has brought her back to health. She is one of the social favorites of her home and her recovery to health has permitted her to enjoy the company of her many friends instead of lying on a bed of sickness and suffering. For the health she now enjoys she gives credit to Wine of Cardui. She writes:

"I have found Wine of Cardui an excellent remedy for female trouble. I suffered for three years with terrible bearing-down pains at the menstrual period. I could hardly stand on my feet and was never real well. Wine of Cardui was the only medicine that I could depend on to do me any good, as I tried several with no success. Wine of Cardui cured me and I have now enjoyed perfect health for two years, and give you all the credit for I know you deserve it."

For a young girl Wine of Cardui is the best remedy to guide her through womanhood by starting the menstrual flow in a healthy and natural manner. Menstruation started right is very easy to keep regular through the years of mature womanhood. Then the "change of life" need not be feared. Thus Wine of Cardui is woman's best relief from youth to old age. A million women have secured blessed relief from their sufferings by taking this treatment. It relieves menstrual troubles in an incredibly short time. In a simple case of deranged menses Wine of Cardui never fails. To relieve disordered menses is to remove the cause of other female troubles. Any physician will tell you that to remove the cause of a disease renders the cure easy, in fact seldom fails to complete the cure. If you would have the same relief which Miss Markell secured try Wine of Cardui. You can take it without an examination and without any publicity whatever. You can take it in the privacy of your home and secure just as much benefit as if a doctor had prescribed it for you. Thousands of women are feeling the vigor of returning health by taking Wine of Cardui.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

REALM OF SPORTS

ATHLETICS MAY LOSE SOME STAR PLAYERS

Tyson, the Hard Hitting First Baseman, and Short Stop McAvoy May Leave.

The East Liverpool Athletics have not yet determined upon the date for reorganization, but it will come long before the next playing season opens. Most of the players of last year's team will be in the field again but several new ones will be required to fill vacancies. In all probability Will Ashbaugh, who has successfully managed the team for a number of seasons, will succeed himself. He has the confidence and respect of all the players and he knows how to take care of the boys when away from home. He has been particularly successful in booking games.

The Athletics may lose two or three of their very best players. Homer Tyson, the hard hitting first baseman, who is one of the best and steadiest handlers in the city, has the offer of a fine situation with the second plant of the Ohio China company at East Palestine and will likely accept. Newt McAvoy, the first short stop, may be found with some strong team next season, although his friends are advising him to remain here another season before starting his professional career. George Carey, who believes McAvoy, the fast short stop, may be called him with a minor league team. Carey, who is wintering in Washington, having been given a lucrative position in the navy yard, may figure in a deal by which he will be returned to Washington. A deal is now nearly completed by which the control of the Washington club is to pass to prominent Washington politicians with whom Carey is a favorite.

With the semi-professional team in possession of West End park, it is likely that the Athletics will play most of their games from home again this season.

FOUL STRIKE RULE

American League Company a Unit in Favor of Abolishing It.

Concerning the foul strike rule, which the American League has voted to abolish, the Cleveland Leader says that while President Killebrew of the Clevelanders, is hopeful in regard to having a peaceful settlement, it is probable that the National League will not give up its fight for the foul strike rule without making some show of a fight. True, it takes a majority vote to change the rule, and as each league committee has three members, it will take a vote of four to alter it. Now the American League committee is a unit against the foul strike rule. President James A. Hart, of the Chicago club, said last summer that if the American League was opposed to the measure, he would see that it was changed. Now he has changed his mind, and claims that he will stand by the foul strike rule. It is the action on the part of the National League magnates that is not liked by the American League, for they refuse to stand by their original opinions, and escape from all responsibility by claiming that "they are instructed."

It is not expected that the two committees will come together before the latter part of next month, and in the meantime there is sure to be considerable discussion of the matter on both sides. This much is certain, the owners of the Cleveland club must be given credit for a victory in having the foul strike rule declared dead as far as the American League is concerned. They have been the most earnest opponents of the rule.

Zeller Signs With Evansville.

Pete Zeller, of Beaver aFlys, the young pitcher of the Rochester A. It is thought by the baseball fans of Beaver county that with the coaching of Haller, Zeller will prove a wonder in the art of twirling next season.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup and lagrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Dr. Armstrong, of Delia, Tex., prescribes it daily and says there is no better cough remedy made. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger (only).

RHEUMATISM

NOT A SKIN DISEASE.

It is natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when rheumatic pains are shooting through the joints and muscles and they are inflamed and sore, the sufferer is apt to turn to liniments and plasters for relief; and while such treatment may quiet the pain temporarily, no amount of rubbing or blistering can cure Rheumatism, because it is not a skin disease, but is in the blood and all through the system, and every time you are exposed to the same conditions that caused the first attack, you are going to have another, and Rheumatism will last just as long as the poison is in the blood, no matter what you apply externally. Too much acid in the blood is one cause of Rheumatism; stomach troubles, bad digestion, weak kidneys and torpid liver are other causes which bring on this painful disease, because the blood becomes tainted with the poisonous matter which these organs fail to carry out of the system. Certain secret diseases will produce Rheumatism, and of all forms this is the most stubborn and severe, for it seems to affect every bone and muscle in the body. The blood is the medium by which the poisons and acids are carried through the system, and it doesn't matter what kind of Rheumatism you have, it must be treated through the blood, or you can never get permanently rid of it. As a cure for rheumatic troubles S. S. S. has never been equalled. It doesn't inflame the stomach and ruin the digestion like Potash, Alkalies and other strong drugs, but tones up the general health, gently stimulates the sluggish organs, and at the same time antiodotes and filters out of the blood all poisonous acids and effete matter of every kind; and when S. S. S. has restored the blood to its natural condition, the painful, feverish joints and the sore and tender muscles are immediately relieved.

REALM OF SPORTS

ATHLETICS MAY LOSE SOME STAR PLAYERS

Tyson, the Hard Hitting First Baseman, and Short Stop McAvoy May Leave.

The East Liverpool Athletics have not yet determined upon the date for reorganization, but it will come long before the next playing season opens. Most of the players of last year's team will be in the field again but several new ones will be required to fill vacancies. In all probability Will Ashbaugh, who has successfully managed the team for a number of seasons, will succeed himself. He has the confidence and respect of all the players and he knows how to take care of the boys when away from home. He has been particularly successful in booking games.

The Athletics may lose two or three of their very best players. Homer Tyson, the hard hitting first baseman, who is one of the best and steadiest handlers in the city, has the offer of a fine situation with the second plant of the Ohio China company at East Palestine and will likely accept. Newt McAvoy, the fast short stop, may be found with some strong team next season, although his friends are advising him to remain here another season before starting his professional career. George Carey, who believes McAvoy, the fast short stop, may be ceded him with a minor league team. Carey, who is wintering in Washington, having been given a lucrative position in the navy yard, may figure in a deal by which he will be returned to Washington. A deal is now nearly completed by which the control of the Washington club is to pass to prominent Washington politicians with whom Carey is a favorite.

With the semi-professional team in possession of West End park, it is likely that the Athletics will play most of their games from home again this season.

FOUL STRIKE RULE

American League Company a Unit in Favor of Abolishing It.

Concerning the foul strike rule, which the American League has voted to abolish, the Cleveland Leader says that while President Kilfoyle, of the Cleveland, is hopeful in regard to having a peaceful settlement, it is probable that the National League will not give up its fight for the foul strike rule without making some show of a fight. True, it takes a majority vote to change the rule, and as each league committee has three members, it will take a vote of four to alter it. Now the American League committee is a unit against the foul strike rule. President James A. Hart, of the Chicago club, said last summer that if the American League was opposed to the measure, he would see that it was changed. Now he has changed his mind, and claims that he will stand by the foul strike rule. It is the action on the part of the National League magnates that is not liked by the American League, for they refuse to stand by their original opinions, and escape from all responsibility by claiming that "they are instructed."

It is not expected that the two committees will come together before the latter part of next month, and in the meantime there is sure to be considerable discussion of the matter on both sides. This much is certain, the owners of the Cleveland club must be given credit for a victory in having the foul strike rule declared dead as far as the American League is concerned. They have been the most earnest opponents of the rule.

Zeller Signs With Evansville.

Pete Zeller, of Beaver Falls, the young pitcher of the Rochester A. A. ball team, of last season, who did so much towards winning the championship of Western Pennsylvania last season, has signed for the season of 1904 with the Evansville, Ind., team of the Central league, of which Haller, the well known catcher of last season's Waynesburg team, is manager. It is thought by the baseball fans of Beaver county that with the coaching of Haller, Zeller will prove a wonder in the art of twirling next season.

COLORADO STRIKES.

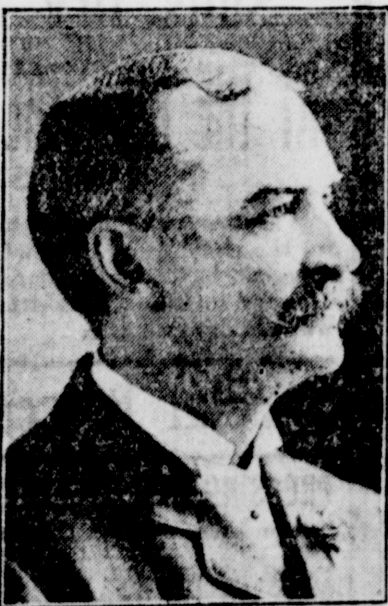

HOW THEY HAVE DISTURBED BUSINESS CONDITIONS.

Decrease of Many Millions in Output of the Mines—Alleged Abuse of the Executive Power—Governor James H. Peabody.

James H. Peabody, governor of Colorado, who for the past three or four months has been having no end of trouble because of the disorder consequent on the miners' strikes, is, among other things, charged with exceeding the executive power.

The trouble, which began several months ago in a strike in the Colorado City ore mills and concerned but 120 men, has resulted in an extraordinary condition of affairs, in which the civil and military authorities have clashed on numerous occasions.

Furthermore, the strike which began so insignificantly has grown to such proportions that 20,000 miners, both metal and coal, have laid down their tools, and an army of militia is in the field performing police duty in the Cripple Creek and other mining centers.

GOVERNOR JAMES H. PEABODY.

When the troops were ordered to the Cripple Creek district the people, it is said, protested against such action, insisting that the civil authorities were capable of controlling the situation. With the arrival of the troops began a bitter conflict between the civil powers and the military. Miners and business men, it is alleged, were arrested by the soldiers without charges of any kind having been filed against them and without the declaration of martial law, and the prisoners were then confined in the "bull pen" at Camp Goldfield. In fact, martial law and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus were proclaimed on Dec. 4.

It is said that scores of damage suits will result from these alleged illegal imprisonments, and several suits have already been started. They are for $100,000 each, and the defendants are Governor Peabody, Generals Bell and Chase and Major McClelland. Much interest attaches to the suit for the same amount to be brought against the same persons by George E. Kyner, editor of the Victor Daily Record, who several weeks ago, with his entire force, was thrown into the "bull pen" because, as alleged, he "criticized the actions of the militia in the field."

The desperate ends to which the opponents of the militia are prepared to go was shown a few weeks ago in an attempt to kill two companies of infantry by poisoning the water in the supply tank at Camp El Paso. Sixty-eight men would have died had not the strength of the poison diluted with so much water been miscalculated.

Governor Peabody's action in ordering troops to the Telluride and Cripple Creek districts has been sustained in the recent report of Major General John C. Bates, U. S. A., who was sent to Colorado to investigate the conditions at those points. General Bates said: "I find that the disturbances at both Cripple Creek and Telluride amounted to insurrection against the state of Colorado in that mining, milling and other business were suspended there by reason of intimidation, threats and violence and that the civil officers were not able to or did not maintain order. . . . I think the employment of state troops at both these points necessary."

Against this is the recent appeal of the executive board of the Western Federation of Labor to President Roosevelt in the following telegram: "At the present time officers of the state of Colorado, under the guise and pretext of enforcing the law, have ordered a large number of reputable and self-sustaining citizens and residents to leave Telluride under penalty of being imprisoned or otherwise severely dealt with. The citizens and residents are not guilty of any crime against the laws of the state or the United States. . . . We call upon you to give these persons the protection guaranteed them by the laws of the land."

Governor James H. Peabody is descended from a family that has been successful in public affairs for many generations. The first Peabody in this country was Lieutenant Francis Peabody, who came from England in 1835. The governor is a native of Vermont and fifty-one years old. He got his education in the public schools and in a business college and as a young man worked as a clerk in a Boston store.

Removing to Denver some years ago, he was for a time employed as a fireman, later going to Canon City, where he has been in the banking business since 1885. The governor has always been active in politics, and as a public officer has won esteem for his executive abilities.

Ant Robbed by Lizard.
While walking along the road on the outskirts of Bordighera I noticed a strange looking insect moving across it in a peculiar way. On getting nearer I saw that what had attracted my notice was a black ant about an inch long with brown wings dragging a cricket bigger than itself. It held the cricket by the head, and as the ant moved backward it drew the cricket toward it. While doing so it entered the shadow cast by my umbrella and instantly released its hold and got out of the shadow; but, finding there was no danger, it returned and seized its prey again by the head and recommenced its backward movement. A low wall ran along side the road, and when the ant got within six feet of it a common brown lizard appeared on the top of the wall and evidently soon caught sight of the ant, for it ran quickly down the wall and to within two feet of it, where it crouched for a second or two like a cat ready to spring and then charged the ant, apparently butting the cricket free with its head. Before the ant could regain its hold the lizard seized the cricket in its mouth and darted up the wall in the direction from which it originally appeared on the scene, leaving the ant running round and round, moving its wings in an agitated manner, vainly searching for its lost prey.—Nature.

The Judgment of Hall Caine.
Before the hand of fame dropped her laurels lightly on his brow, to speak poetically, Hall Caine was a publisher's reader and in that capacity held in his hands the fate of many a book. That his good judgment was not altogether infallible is shown by the fact that he read and, so it is said, rejected "The Romance of Two Worlds," which soon afterward was published and became the success of the year.

On one occasion a budding author managed to gain access to his office for the purpose of submitting a book to him.

Hall Caine took the manuscript from the man's hands and glanced over it for perhaps twenty minutes. Then he gave it back, with a few words of suggestion and criticism.

"I do not think, Mr. Caine," said the ambitious writer, "that you should dispose of my ideas in this summary fashion. That book cost me a year's labor."
"Indeed!" said Mr. Caine. "My dear fellow, an impartial judge would give you at least ten!"

The Sensation of Hunger.
The sensation of hunger has not been easy to explain. The new theory of a German physician is that it is due to emptiness of the blood vessels of the stomach, and it is pointed out that hunger is appeased with the rush of blood to the stomach following the taking of food and beginning of digestion. In many anemic persons who have no appetite when the stomach is empty the blood vessels are really congested instead of being empty. Lack of blood in the stomach in health acts on a special nerve, which is a branch of the same nerve trunk as the nerves of the mouth and tongue. A stimulus applied to the tongue, as by a spice, thus increases appetite, while disease affecting the nerves of the tongue may produce loss of appetite even when the stomach is empty.

COLORADO STRIKES.

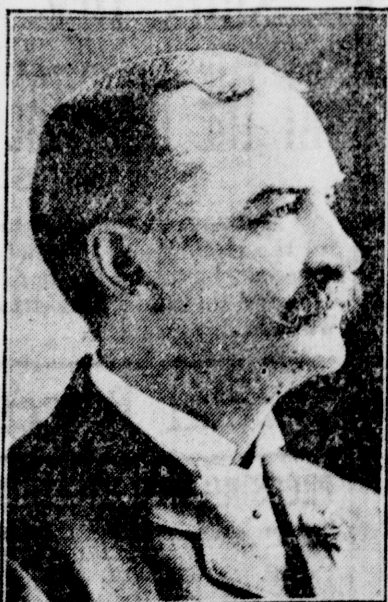

HOW THEY HAVE DISTURBED BUSINESS CONDITIONS.

Decrease of Many Millions in Output of the Mines—Alleged Abuse of the Executive Power—Governor James H. Peabody.

James H. Peabody, governor of Colorado, who for the past three or four months has been having no end of trouble because of the disorder consequent on the miners' strikes, is, among other things, charged with exceeding the executive power.

The trouble, which began several months ago in a strike in the Colorado City ore mills and concerned but 120 men, has resulted in an extraordinary condition of affairs, in which the civil and military authorities have clashed on numerous occasions.

Furthermore, the strike which began so insignificantly has grown to such proportions that 20,000 miners, both metal and coal, have laid down their tools, and an army of militia is in the field performing police duty in the Cripple Creek and other mining centers.

GOVERNOR JAMES H. PEABODY.

When the troops were ordered to the Cripple Creek district the people, it is said, protested against such action, insisting that the civil authorities were capable of controlling the situation. With the arrival of the troops began a bitter conflict between the civil powers and the military. Miners and business men, it is alleged, were arrested by the soldiers without charges of any kind having been filed against them and without the declaration of martial law, and the prisoners were then confined in the "bull pen" at Camp Goldfield. In fact, martial law and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus were proclaimed on Dec. 4.

It is said that scores of damage suits will result from these alleged illegal imprisonments, and several suits have already been started. They are for $100,000 each, and the defendants are Governor Peabody, Generals Bell and Chase and Major McClelland. Much interest attaches to the suit for the same amount to be brought against the same persons by George E. Kyner, editor of the Victor Daily Record, who several weeks ago, with his entire force, was thrown into the "bull pen" because, as alleged, he "criticized the actions of the militia in the field."

The desperate ends to which the opponents of the militia are prepared to go was shown a few weeks ago in an attempt to kill two companies of infantry by poisoning the water in the supply tank at Camp El Paso. Sixty-eight men would have died had not the strength of the poison diluted with so much water been miscalculated.

Governor Peabody's action in ordering troops to the Telluride and Cripple Creek districts has been sustained in the recent report of Major General John C. Bates, U. S. A., who was sent to Colorado to investigate the conditions at those points. General Bates said: "I find that the disturbances at both Cripple Creek and Telluride amounted to insurrection against the state of Colorado in that mining, milling and other business were suspended there by reason of intimidation, threats and violence and that the civil officers were not able to or did not maintain order. . . . I think the employment of state troops at both these points necessary."

Against this is the recent appeal of the executive board of the Western Federation of Labor to President Roosevelt in the following telegram: "At the present time officers of the state of Colorado, under the guise and pretext of enforcing the law, have ordered a large number of reputable and self-sustaining citizens and residents to leave Telluride under penalty of being imprisoned or otherwise severely dealt with. The citizens and residents are not guilty of any crime against the laws of the state or the United States. . . . We call upon you to give these persons the protection guaranteed them by the laws of the land."

Governor James H. Peabody is descended from a family that has been successful in public affairs for many generations. The first Peabody in this country was Lieutenant Francis Peabody, who came from England in 1633. The governor is a native of Vermont and fifty-one years old. He got his education in the public schools and in a business college and as a young man worked as a clerk in a Boston store.

Removing to Denver some years ago, he was for a time employed as a fire man, later going to Canon City, where he has been in the banking business since 1885. The governor has always been active in politics, and as a public officer has won esteem for his executive abilities.

Fireman Pat Woods in his usual prompt manner ran all the way to the top of Lincoln avenue, arriving at the Timmons' residence in time to see the head of the household settle back in his chair to read the advertisements, having found a window through which he could crawl. Pat Woods is a good officer and under ordinary circumstances, very even tempered, but as soon as he could get his breath he said a few things that it is just as well to not repeat. SOCIAL EVENTS

Girls' Leap Year Party.

Leap year of 1904 will be observed on Tuesday evening, January 5, when "The Girls" will give a dance at Rock Springs park. "The Girls," consisting of the prominent society young ladies of the city, have spared no expense or time in planning the event, to make the dance one of the most elaborate functions of the year. It is their purpose to manifest their appreciation of the courtesies of their gentlemen friends during the past four years, and 125 invitations were sent out today, within the elite circles of the city. McGraw's orchestra will render the music and the beautiful decorations of the pavilion will be a prominent feature.

Horwell-Harrison.

At the home of the bride's parents this evening at 8 o'clock Miss Etta Horwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Horwell, will be married to Mr. Alfred Harrison. Dr. M. B. Pratt will perform the ceremony. Miss Emma Moon, the bride's sister, will play the wedding march. A reception will follow, for which the house has been handsomely decorated. The young couple will go to housekeeping at 241 Seventh street, where a handsome home has been fitted up for them. The groom is a prominent pottery worker and the bride an accomplished and popular young lady.

Gardner-Bennett.

At the First M. E. church parsonage last evening Miss Bertha M. Gardner and Mr. Rowney W. Bennett were married by Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt. Both are popular and highly esteemed young people.

A Donkey Decoy.

A traveler in central Africa tells of a native hunter of the Wandorobo tribe who was the possessor of a most accomplished donkey, which, with an antelope's horns strapped to its head, its body covered with a skin or painted to resemble the animal its master intended to stalk that day, was the means of deluding many an unwary creature into falling a victim to the poisoned arrows of the hunter crouching behind his four footed assistant.

At the Reception.

"I'm anxious to get the names of all present," said the reporter. "Will you oblige me?"

"Oh," said the meek man, "you may put down 'Mrs. Henry Peck and husband.'"

"You mean 'Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peck,' don't you?"

"I would prefer that," he replied, "with a furtive glance over his shoulder, 'but for goodness' sake don't say I gave it to you that way.'"

The Persian Way.

They have curious methods in Persia of insuring law and order. A failure of the crops had resulted in a dear loaf, which much enraged the populace. In order to quell the tumult the shah ordered a number of bakers to receive several hundred strokes with a rod, besides a few minor little attentions, such as the amputation of an ear or two.

Hotel Hartman at Columbus.

When you go to Columbus you should not fail to visit the Hotel Hartman, as it is one of the features of the city. It is beyond doubt the finest and handsomest hotel west of New York.

THE HIGHEST VALUE OF HOLIDAY GIFTS

Christmas Presents Undeniably a Powerful Influence for Good.

A VITAL MORAL FORCE

Uplifting Human Nature Through Unselfishness And Making a Strong Appeal to Wide Interest in Others. Stimulus to Study.

Who shall measure the far-reaching good done by Christmas gifts which bring into the lives of those who receive them interests and ambitions that might otherwise lie dormant or unknown? How can anyone trace the vital influence of books that would go unread and unheard of by multitudes of boys and girls who are led to value them because they come with the appeal and charm of gifts, in a season of kindness and good will?

It is so with many kinds of merchandise. Because Christmas presents are apt to run outside the usual current of daily necessities they are all the more likely to stimulate interest in fine and varied forms of human activity and development. Art comes with its quiet power to demand a share in the thoughts of those who are given pictures. The deep, strong appeal of fine handicraft is often made far more effective by the personal charm which is woven into it. Objects of beauty, or even of mere utility, if coming from well-loved hands, act as silent reminders of all that is best in life.

It often happens that boys are stimulated to study and endeavor of the utmost importance by new interests awakened by scientific instruments, such as microscopes, cameras, drafting tools, and the like. Girls are made lovers of music, in some cases, by the help and inspiration of Christmas gifts. In many directions and ways the presents which come at the holiday season are likely to lead the mind and its aspirations out of beaten tracks into new fields of great interest and importance. The fact that these effects are not easily proved or traced is of no conscious of the forces which are decisive in the turning points of life.

But beyond question the highest value of Christmas giving lies in its uplifting of human nature through unselfishness, and by the appeal which it makes to wide interest in others. In that respect it is one of the vital moral forces of the world. It is the strengthening of fine and beautiful instincts in mankind which gives the best of holidays its greatest value. That fact alone much outweighs all the errors and follies which are more or less connected with Christmas giving and the celebration of the day sacred to good will and human kindness.

WHOLESOME IDEALS OF CHICAGO CHILDREN

Proof That the Youth Are Not Unduly Influenced By the Spirit of Commercialism.

If, as is certainly to be hoped, the average young American is to be found in the public schools, and if Chicago schools are fairly representative, an interesting little experiment made in one of them the other day will encourage some who fear that young America has been unduly influenced by the commercialism so much in evidence in modern city life. It shows at all events that in one Chicago school the youngsters still cherish praiseworthy ideals.

A teacher of English of a five-year class asked her pupils to write on unsigned slips the name of the character they most admired in history, fiction or real life. Lincoln's name led all the rest. Washington was a close second. Among the presidents McKinley and Roosevelt had honorable mention. King Arthur, King Solomon, Joan of Arc and Queen Victoria also appealed to the youthful minds and hearts. "My father" and "my mother" were tied with three votes each.

The surprising fact, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, is that not a single vote, according to the newspaper report of the poll, was cast for Napoleon, Caesar or any representative of mere force, and the entire list may be scanned in vain for the name of "my father" and "my mother," too, mean much. No man is, or would care to be, a "hero to his valet," but what father would not care to appear as such in the eyes of his child? The cynical may suspect that these childish ideals will not long endure in the environment of the future. Probably these children are not exceptional, and it is certainly to be hoped that as these little twigs are now inclined the coming trees will grow.

GREAT TRIUMPH FOR DR. HOWARD

Believed That He Has Found the Deadly Smallpox Germ.

Cleveland, December 23.—Investigations for more than a year have been conducted by Dr. William T. Howard, city bacteriologist and professor in the medical college of Western Reserve university, may terminate soon in one of the most important medical discoveries of the age. Dr. Howard has been searching for the smallpox germ, one of the few deadly disease germs that up to this time have baffled the scientific skill of bacteriologists. He now believes that he has found the object of his search, although he has thus far been unable to define its characteristics with precision.

Dr. Howard himself refuses to speak of his work and says that as soon as his labors are carried to a satisfactory conclusion he will publish the results in one of the medical journals. It is said, however, on good authority, that Dr. Howard seems to be on the point of completing and proving a discovery that will be one of the greatest honors ever conferred on humanity by the scientific study of pathology and bacteriology.

UNIQUE RECORD MADE BY MAHONING OFFICER

Constable, While Serving a Sentence of 30 Days in Jail, Arrested Three Men.

Youngstown, December 23.—While serving 30 days in the county jail, Constable Dennis Eagan, of Coitsville township, made a record. He was the constable in Justice Hazeltine's court, and assaulted Michael Livingston, an attorney, of this city.

He pleaded guilty and served out his sentence. In the meantime he has succeeded in arresting three prisoners, wanted for serious offenses. He got information from other prisoners, which led to the arrest of two of the men and the recovery of considerable stolen property.

When the other officers of the law failed to arrest one man Eagan was taken out of the jail and made the arrest himself. As soon as he was at liberty he returned to his work as constable in East Youngstown.

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, December 23.—Fred S. Bunn, an employee of the City hospital at Youngstown, is here to spend his vacation with home folks and his wife, who preceded him 10 days ago.

An attorney from Warren was in town Monday taking depositions looking to the settlement of pension claims pending in the pension department. He drove across into Carroll county for additional evidence.

Elmer Henderson, late of Lisbon, has started a back to and from the depot, meeting all the trains for passengers. This is quite an accommodation for the traveling public.

The Bell Telephone company, under the management of Frank Swaney and his force, have moved the exchange office out of the Thompson building, where it has been for about seven years, to the new Dodds building.

Alimony Case Settled.

Lisbon, December 23.—(Special.)—The divorce and alimony case of Kate Adams, of Lisbon, versus John C. Adams, which was dismissed in court a few days ago, has been settled. The husband agrees to pay his wife $50 and give her a lease of his life interest in a 70-acre farm in Center township, to hold good as long as she does not re-marry.

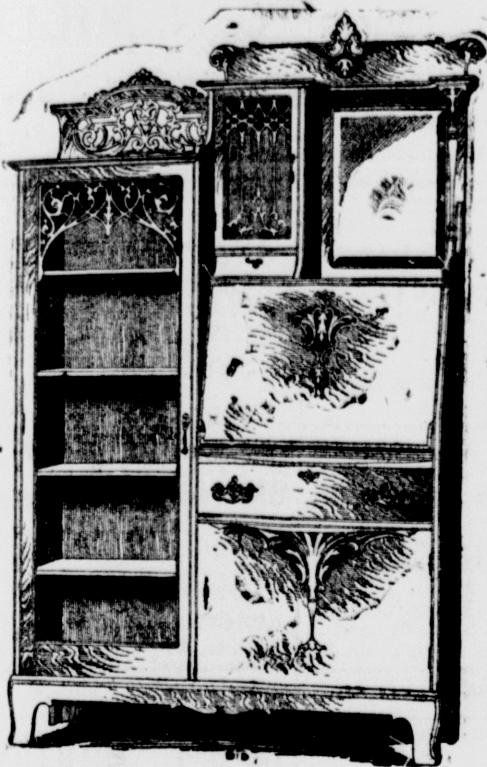

Lisbon Expects to Boom.

Next summer is likely to be a boom for Lisbon. The Youngstown & Southern electric line will be built, the Stark electric line will come down from Salem, and the Wabash steam road will go through to Minerva. These enterprises will make Lisbon a business center and start her on the road to prosperity.—Lisbon Patriot.

NOT GUILTY OF FRAUD

Charles M. Schwab Makes Answer to Suit in Shipbuilding Litigation.

HE DENIES ALL ALLEGATIONS

Former President of Steel Corporation Recounts Various Developments in Formation of Big Concern and Declares Himself Innocent.

New York, Dec. 23.—Charles M. Schwab has filed his answer to the cross bill of the United States Shipbuilding company and James Smith, Jr., its receiver, in the United States circuit court for the southern district of New York. The case is that of the company and its receiver against the New York Security and Trust company and Mr. Schwab. He says:

"I deny that I ever was one of the promoters of the shipbuilding company or that I and a number of persons associated with me acquired the capital stock of the Bethlehem Steel company, as averred in said cross bill. Denial is made that he conceived any scheme of transferring to the shipbuilding company the stock of the above company at an excessive rate or upon conditions permitting him to control the shipbuilding company, or to absorb for his benefit 'all of its property and assets, to the injury of its creditors.'"

Mr. Schwab denies that he made any false representations regarding the Bethlehem Steel company. He believed the net earnings of the shipbuilding company for the 12 months ending July 31, 1902, exceeded $1,000,000 and that the surplus and current assets exceeded $3,500,000.

After denying every charge of fraud in his connection with the Bethlehem Steel and United States Shipbuilding companies, Mr. Schwab says that after making a contract for the purchase of the capital stock of the Bethlehem company, he communicated with J. P. Morgan & Co., stating that he was willing to turn over the contract to the United States Steel corporation "without any profit whatever."

Morgan & Co. assumed the contract, as syndicate managers, with authority to turn it over to the steel corporation. If the Morgan firm disposed of it to other parties Mr. Schwab was to receive the greater part of the profit. He says that on June 9, 1902, Messrs. Lewis Nixon and D. Leroy Dresser asked him to underwrite $9,000,000 first mortgage bonds of the shipbuilding company. Prior to that he had had no connection with any such combination.

Mr. Schwab took the underwriting "upon the same terms as other underwriters," providing the new company would give preference to the steel corporation in purchase of materials. On June 13, 1902, Messrs. Nixon and Dresser wished to acquire the Bethlehem Steel company and offered $10,000,000 each of bonds, preferred and common general stock. Mr. Schwab opened negotiations with J. P. Morgan & Co., offering to provide the cash necessary to reimburse them the actual cost of the shares of the Bethlehem company to the syndicate and $5,000,000 in stock. This offer was accepted and Messrs. Nixon and Dresser were so informed. Then followed Mr. Schwab's illness.

ARE YOU AGEING?

Dr. Holmes used to say he was "seventy years young." Some men are old at half that figure.

Age is not in years. It is in the blood. Scott's Emulsion helps to keep you young by keeping your blood young; by supplying it with an abundance of rich, pure, vital nourishment; carrying constant life and renewal to every fibre of your body. It will help you to rob advancing years of half their sting.

and his absence from the United States until March 17, 1903. Upon his return he found the shipbuilding company in financial difficulties and learned for the first time that many of the representations in the prospectus of the shipbuilding plants were false.

ANOTHER SUSPECT ARRESTED.

Sailor's Bloody Clothing Arouses Skipper's Suspicion.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 23.—A man giving his name as Frank Downey is under arrest on suspicion of being connected with the murder of Sarah Martin at New York. Downey applied to Captain Sanders, of the schooner Marion Cobb, to be shipped on the vessel and was engaged. The captain discovered that the man's shirt and vest were saturated with blood and he notified the police. When taken in custody Downey said: "What am I wanted for, in connection with that job at Kelly's?" Captain Sanders says he knows positively that Downey and Neilson, or Totterman, are chums.

WHOLE FAMILY ARRESTED.

Charged With Murder of Miss Gillespie, of Rising Sun, Ind.

Rising Sun, Ind., Dec. 23.—In its report of the investigation of the assassination of Miss Elizabeth Gillespie, Dec. 8, the grand jury has returned true bills of murder in the first degree against James Gillespie, a twin brother of the murdered woman; Mrs. Belle Seward, her widowed sister; Mrs. Carrie Barbour, niece of Dr. Thad A. Reamy, a physician of Cincinnati, and Myron Barbour, her husband. Mrs. Barbour is sister-in-law of Dr. William Gillespie, brother of the murdered woman. Bench warrants were issued immediately by Judge Downey, of the circuit court. The Gillespies were expecting the arrests and Dr. Gillespie drove to the home of the accused in a closed carriage and brought the indicted persons to the court house.

A conspiracy among members of the murdered woman's own family to kill her is charged. James Gillespie is charged as the principal, although all are charged with murder in the first degree. Each entered a plea of not guilty. They were admitted to bail in $10,000 each.

MISSING MONEY FOUND.

Vatican Monsignor Returns $100,000 Which Had Disappeared.

Rome, Dec. 23.—According to the Messagero the story that Cardinal Gottl, prefect of the propaganda, recently handed to the pope $9,000,000 said to have been confided to the cardinal by the late Pope Leo XIII., originated in the fact that in the financial investigation following Pope Leo's death a deficit of over $100,000 was found. After diligent search, and although no positive proof was obtainable, it appeared that the only person who could know where the money had gone was a certain monsignor living in the Vatican. He at first asserted that he knew nothing of the matter, but being more closely pressed and the evidence against him gathering, he one day said to the pope: "Be patient. God will provide for the needs of the holy see."

Soon afterwards the monsignor appeared with a friend and said that Pope Leo confided the money to him, requesting him to return it to his successor four months after his death.

KAISER'S SISTER HAS CANCER.

Dread Enemy of Hohenzollern Family Appears Again.

Berlin, Dec. 23.—Despite denial several newspapers in Berlin have learned that the Princess Charlotte of Saxe-Meiningen, the Kaiser's sister, is suffering from cancer. The first report has it that the princess had a cancerous tumor on her lower jaw. These papers state that instead of suffering from a tumor the princess' physicians have ascertained that her trouble is cancer of the throat in the worst form. These reports have caused great uneasiness in the German court.

Broke Bank and Stole Horse.

Tower Hill, Ill., Dec. 23.—Burglars have blown open a safe in the Tower Hill bank and escaped with $5,000 in cash. The thieves stole a horse and buggy in which to get away and members of the Anti-Horse Thief association are in pursuit.

Lunched With Roosevelt.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, was President Roosevelt's guest at luncheon today. The purpose of the governor's visit is purely a personal one.

BUTLER MAN TO DIE IN EXECUTIONER'S CHAIR

Self-Confessed Murderer of Four Men Says His Home Is in That City.

New York, Dec. 23.—With a verdict that sends Frank H. Burness, a self-confessed murderer, to the electric chair, a jury has ended one of the most sensational murder trials heard in Brooklyn for months. Burness' fourth murder was committed on Nov. 10, when he shot Captain Townsend, of the schooner Charles E. Buckley, because the latter would not pay him $6.30 the prisoner alleged to be due him. This and other killings were calmly described by Burness on the witness stand, and the murderer insisted that he did the deed with premeditation and in full realization of the consequences. The jury brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree. Burness smiled broadly when the jury was being polled. Judge Crane said he would sentence Burness on Monday. On being given privilege Burness said:

"There may be an idea in the minds of some of the jurors that I hold a grudge against them for having found me guilty. I wish to say that I don't feel that way in the slightest, and (laughingly) all I can say is I wish them all a merry Christmas."

Burness, who is about 44 years old, according to his own statement, was born in Butler, Pa. When asked what he thought would be the result of his act he coolly replied:

"I only see one way out of it."

"What is that?"

"Why, the chair, of course," he said.

ASPHYXIATED AT LATROBE.

Two Guests at Hotel Blow Out Gas Before Retiring.

Latrobe, Pa., Dec. 23.—Two men were asphyxiated at the Hotel McHenry, of this place, and were found dead in their beds. They are Dominick Cesari and Peter Grevetti, both of Millwood.

Cesari was the proprietor of a general store at Millwood and came to Latrobe with Grevetti to purchase holiday goods. They missed their train home and decided to remain in Latrobe over night. They went to the Hotel McHenry.

Early in the morning the odor of gas aroused other occupants of the hotel with the exception of the two guests from Millwood, and Proprietor McHenry decided that the leak was in their room. The door was forced and the two men were discovered lying in bed. Dr. Elsmann said they had evidently been dead for two hours. The gas jet in the room was wide open.

TYPHOID AT PITTSBURG.

40 Cases Are Being Reported to Authorities Each Day.

Pittsburg, Dec. 23.—Typhoid fever has become more prevalent than in any month in the city's history. In December, 1902, 108 cases were reported to the bureau of health. In the first 22 days of the present month 410 cases were reported. The disease is claiming new victims at the rate of about 40 every 24 hours, its ravages taking on more, and more the character of an epidemic. Its form is virulent and a large proportion of those taken sick are dying.

Advice that every one boil all city water used for drinking or cooking is being given by the city health officials.

MRS. SOFFEL WILL STAR

IN GLORIOUS MELODRAMA.

Pittsburg, Dec. 23.—Mrs. Katherine Soffel, who added the notorious Biddle brothers in their escape and served two years in the penitentiary in consequence, will go on the stage in a play called "The Noble Woman," taking the heroine's role as "Agnes Grey."

FURNACEMEN CALLED

TO CONSIDER WAGE CUT.

Youngstown, O., Dec. 23.—A call has been issued by President McMahon for a meeting of the executive board of the blast furnace workers and smelters' union at Buffalo next Wednesday to consider the question of a reduction in wages. President McMahon said that if a reduction is necessary the men earning the big salaries should receive the greatest.

Hangs Himself in Prison.

Philadelphia, Dec. 23.—Charles D. Fenstermacher, who was convicted of using the mails to defraud, committed suicide by hanging himself with a towel in prison. His plan was to mail letters to farmers through which he secured large consignments of produce. This he sold, but failed to make adequate return to the farmer.

More Money from Rockefeller.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—It was announced at the forty-ninth convocation of the University of Chicago that donations amounting to $1,850,000 had been received during the year from John D. Rockefeller, founder of the university. Of this amount $1,500,000 in real estate, improved and unimproved, in the immediate vicinity of the university, was formally transferred by Mr. Rockefeller.

CHINA IN SAD STRAIT

Will Be Unable to Remain Neutral in Case of Russo-Japanese War.

WISE MISISTERS ARE NEEDED

Wu Ting Fang, Formerly Chinese Minister at Washington, Is Doing All in His Power to Persuade Empress to Choose Them.

Peking, Dec. 23.—Chinese officials are awakening to the peril confronting China in the event of a Russo-Japanese war and they are greatly distressed. Wu Ting Fang has been urging the United States legation, on his own responsibility, to seek a special audience of the Dowager Empress and impress on her China's perilous position and the need of a strong army and ministers acquainted with foreign affairs.

China will attempt to remain neutral, though doubtless she will be subjected to strong Japanese pressure to participate in a conflict for the preservation of her integrity. The officials here recognize that the remnant of China's sovereignty in Manchuria is lost if Russia succeeds and see the difficulty of China avoiding becoming entangled in a war on her own territory.

Tokio, Dec. 23.—It is asserted in official circles here that the Japanese reply to Russia rejects the fundamental points at issue, which are understood to include mutual guarantees for the preservation of Chinese and Korean sovereignty while securing their individual interests.

The situation is graver than since the commencement of the negotiations, but is still susceptible to a pacific solution if Russia will quickly reconsider her reply.

The fact that Foreign Minister Komura called on Baron DeRosen, the Russian minister, instead of Baron DeRosen calling on Komura, is explained by the fact that the baron is suffering from an ear affection. But the explanation has obvious diplomatic significance and is interpreted that Japan is determined not to afford Russia possible grounds for claiming Japanese impetuosity as an excuse. Komura's communication is not believed officially to be tantamount to an ultimatum, as rumored.

War preparations continue apace. The transports and the warships can sail at five minutes' notice.

The Japanese government proposes immediately to undertake the completion of the Seoul Pusan railroad under the direct supervision of Japan. Popular sentiment and the press are urging the government to set a limit to the "Russian tactics of aggression and insolent negligence."

London, Dec. 23.—The Daily Mail's Tien Tsin correspondent learns on what he says is good authority that in the event of a war between Russia and Japan the Chinese military authorities will co-operate with the Japanese. According to the correspondent it is said in Tien Tsin that a number of Japanese warships are concentrating in the vicinity of Port Arthur.

IMAGINATION KILLED AGED COLORED WOMAN.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The coroner has rendered a singular verdict in the case of an aged colored woman. It was based on the testimony of a physician who said the woman imagined she was poisoned and this affected her heart in such a way as to kill her.

Bank Wrecker Paroled.

Detroit, Dec. 23.—Governor Bliss has signed a parole for Frank C. Andrews, former vice president of the wrecked City Savings bank of Detroit. Andrews has been confined in the state prison at Jackson since Nov. 13, 1902.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and used as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. WILL RESIST WAGE CUT.

West Virginia Miners Threaten Strike If It Is Made.

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 23.—Coal miners will strike before they consent to accept a reduction, as planned by the operators, to take effect before the expiration of the scale year. This is the spirit of an important statement issued by Vice President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers' union, just before he left for Irwin, Pa., to look into the coal situation there. Mr. Lewis said:

"It cannot be denied by the operators that there has been a general revival in the demand for coal in the last few weeks and as a result a stimulating of prices with an upward tendency east and west. When we meet the operators we expect to deal with the facts in relation to the cost of production and we will not for a moment consider present wild statements."

Several of the operators in the Preston county fields are also interested in the mines at Meyersdale, Pa., where 5,000 men are out on account of a similar cut of 10 cents a ton.

The men in Preston county were recently organized, but are determined to hold out against the proposed reduction.

ELOPES WITH FORMER LOVE.

Married Ohio Woman Leaves Her Husband and Daughter.

Lima, O., Dec. 23.—After his rival had won the sweetheart of his boyhood days, John Dadds has returned to the little village of McGuffey and taken away the woman he had loved for 12 years. When 12 years of age Dadds and Miss Ida Biederman, who were schoolmates, vowed an early marriage. Dadds left the village for the west to seek his fortune.

Miss Biederman married Dadds' rival, W. M. Lowery. To all appearances it was a happy marriage and one daughter, now aged 8, was born. During these years, however, Dadds was secretly corresponding with Mrs. Lowery. She sent her daughter for her father and on his return he found this note:

"Gone with the man I have always loved. Take good care of the child." Mr. Lowery learned that Dadds purchased tickets for Mankato, Minn.

IS ALREADY SETTLED

Appeal by Colombia to The Hague Tribunal Would Be Useless.

OPINION OF AN AMBASSADOR

European Countries Anticipate Refusal of United States to General Reyes' Proposal—Division of Debt Could Be Determined by That Court.

Washington, Dec. 23.—"Refusal by the United States to consent to a proposition from Colombia for a reference of the Panama question to The Hague tribunal is expected and will be fully approved by the European powers."

This statement was made by a European ambassador of high rank and influence. The ambassador quoted, in explaining the attitude of European powers, said:

"Panama is a closed chapter in the history of nations and The Hague court is not the place for settled questions, but for pending problems, which are referred to it with the full approval of all the parties interested. When Russia, Germany and France recognized the independence of Panama they set their seal of approval on the action of the Washington government in pledging itself to guarantee and maintain the independence of the republic it had previously recognized."

"A question between Colombia and Panama which might be referred to The Hague is that of the assumption by Panama of a part of the Colombian debt. If General Reyes should ask the United States to use its good offices to have this matter brought before The Hague, Panama might safely acquiesce in such a proposition."

A full report of the condition of affairs on the isthmus will be made to President Roosevelt by Admiral Walker, chairman of the isthmian canal commission, who has returned from Colon. The admiral's stay on the isthmus covered about four weeks, during which he went over the ground thoroughly, particularly with reference to the condition of the canal property. Admiral Walker went to Colon as the representative of the president soon after the republic was proclaimed.

The admiral said the isthmians have no fear that the Colombians will attempt to reconquer the country. There is not, he said, a trail in all Panama of sufficient width to drive a wagon. Colombia has never built a trail or constructed a bridge in Panama.

"The end of the rainy season in Panama is now approaching," said Admiral Walker, "and the weather is hot. I did not see or hear of a case of fever of any kind while I was in Panama."

Colon, Dec. 23.—William I. Buchanan, the United States minister to the republic of Panama, arrived here on the steamer Yucatan and immediately took a train for Panama in company with United States Consul Gudge, who came to Colon to meet the minister.

ROXBURGH AT HOME.

Coast Guardsmen Unhitch Horses and Draw Ducal Carriage.

Edinburgh, Dec. 23.—The duke and duchess of Roxburgh arrived at Dunbar last night and were given a magnificent reception. They were met at the depot by the provost and the members of the Dunbar town council, as well as by the tenants of the Roxburgh estate. The tenants were introduced to the duchess (formerly Miss May Goeliet, of New York) by the duke, who delivered a brief speech to the tenants and to the Dunbar municipal officials, thanking them for their reception.

As soon as the duke and duchess entered their carriage the horses were unhitched and the carriage was drawn by the coast guardsmen, preceded by pipers to Roxmouth Park, the seat of the Roxburghs, which is two miles distant from Dunbar. The carriage was followed by 200 torch bearers.

CHINA IN SAD STRAIT

Will Be Unable to Remain Neutral in Case of Russo-Japanese War.

WISE MISISTERS ARE NEEDED

Wu Ting Fang, Formerly Chinese Minister at Washington, Is Doing All in His Power to Persuade Empress to Choose Them.

Peking, Dec. 23.—Chinese officials are awakening to the peril confronting China in the event of a Russo-Japanese war and they are greatly distressed. Wu Ting Fang has been urging the United States legation, on his own responsibility, to seek a special audience of the Dowager Empress and impress on her China's perilous position and the need of a strong army and ministers acquainted with foreign affairs.

China will attempt to remain neutral, though doubtless she will be subjected to strong Japanese pressure to participate in a conflict for the preservation of her integrity. The officials here recognize that the remnant of China's sovereignty in Manchuria is lost if Russia succeeds and see the difficulty of China avoiding becoming entangled in a war on her own territory.

Tokio, Dec. 23.—It is asserted in official circles here that the Japanese reply to Russia rejects the fundamental points at issue, which are understood to include mutual guarantees for the preservation of Chinese and Korean sovereignty while securing their individual interests.

The situation is graver than since the commencement of the negotiations, but is still susceptible to a pacific solution if Russia will quickly reconsider her reply.

The fact that Foreign Minister Komura called on Baron DeRosen, the Russian minister, instead of Baron DeRosen calling on Komura, is explained by the fact that the baron is suffering from an ear affection. But the explanation has obvious diplomatic significance and is interpreted that Japan is determined not to afford Russia possible grounds for claiming Japanese impetuosity as an excuse. Komura's communication is not believed officially to be tantamount to an ultimatum, as rumored.

War preparations continue apace. The transports and the warships can sail at five minutes' notice.

The Japanese government proposes immediately to undertake the completion of the Seoul Fusan railroad under the direct supervision of Japan. Popular sentiment and the press are eagerly urging the government to set a limit to the "Russian tactics of aggression and insolent negligence."

London, Dec. 23.—The Daily Mail: Tien Tsin correspondent learns on what he says is good authority that in the event of a war between Russia and Japan the Chinese military authorities will co-operate with the Japanese. According to the correspondent it is said in Tien Tsin that a number of Japanese warships are concentrating in the vicinity of Port Arthur.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The coroner has rendered a singular verdict in the case of an aged colored woman. It was based on the testimony of a physician who said the woman imagined she was poisoned and this affected her heart in such a way as to kill her.

Bank Wrecker Paroled.

Detroit, Dec. 23.—Governor Bliss has signed a parole for Frank C. Andrews, former vice president of the wrecked City Savings bank of Detroit. Andrews has been confined in the state prison at Jackson since Nov. 13, 1902.

ELOPES WITH FORMER LOVE.

Married Ohio Woman Leaves Her Husband and Daughter.

Lima, O., Dec. 23.—After his rival had won the sweetheart of his boyhood days, John Dodds has returned to the little village of McGuffey and taken away the woman he had loved for 12 years. When 12 years of age Dodds and Miss Ida Biederman, who were schoolmates, vowed an early marriage. Dodds left the village for the west to seek his fortune.

Miss Biederman married Dodds' rival, W. M. Lowery. To all appearances it was a happy marriage and one daughter, now aged 8, was born. During these years, however, Dodds was secretly corresponding with Mrs. Lowery. She sent her daughter for her father and on his return he found this note:

"Come with the man I have always loved. Take good care of the child."

Mr. Lowery learned that Dodds purchased tickets for Mankato, Minn.

Appeal by Colombia to The Hague Tribunal Would Be Useless.

OPINION OF AN AMBASSADOR

European Countries Anticipate Refusal of United States to General Reyes' Proposal—Division of Debt Could Be Determined by That Court.

Washington, Dec. 23.—"Refusal by the United States to consent to a proposition from Colombia for a reference of the Panama question to The Hague tribunal is expected and will be fully approved by the European powers."

This statement was made by a European ambassador of high rank and influence. The ambassador quoted, in explaining the attitude of European powers, said:

"Panama is a closed chapter in the history of nations and The Hague court is not the place for settled questions, but for pending problems, which are referred to it with the full approval of all the parties interested. When Russia, Germany and France recognized the independence of Panama they set their seal of approval on the action of the Washington government in pledging itself to guarantee and maintain the independence of the republic it had previously recognized."

"A question between Colombia and Panama which might be referred to The Hague is that of the assumption by Panama of a part of the Colombian debt. If General Reyes should ask the United States to use its good offices to have this matter brought before The Hague, Panama might safely acquiesce in such a proposition."

A full report of the condition of affairs on the isthmus will be made to President Roosevelt by Admiral Walker, chairman of the isthmian canal commission, who has returned from Colon. The admiral's stay on the isthmus covered about four weeks, during which he went over the ground thoroughly, particularly with reference to the condition of the canal property. Admiral Walker went to Colon as the representative of the president soon after the republic was proclaimed.

The admiral said the isthmians have no fear that the Colombians will attempt to reconquer the country. There is not, he said, a trail in all Panama of sufficient width to drive a wagon. Colombia has never built a trail or constructed a bridge in Panama.

"The end of the rainy season in Panama is now approaching," said Admiral Walker, "and the weather is hot. I did not see or hear of a case of fever of any kind while I was in Panama."

Colon, Dec. 23.—William I. Buchanan, the United States minister to the republic of Panama, arrived here on the steamer Yucatan and immediately took a train for Panama in company with United States Consul Gudgey, who came to Colon to meet the minister.

As soon as the duke and duchess entered their carriage the horses were unhitched and the carriage was drawn by the coast guardsmen, preceded by pipers to Roxmouth Park, the seat of the Roxburghs, which is two miles distant from Dunbar. The carriage was followed by 200 torch bearers.
